

Catholic Daughters of the Americas

Five National Projects

Support our Aging Religious

CDA supports disaster areas

Cleft palate surgery
for poor children

Devotion to Mary
through the Rosary

In order to maintain these 5 projects, each Court is asked to donate a minimum of $20 per project, per year.

Checks payable to:

Catholic Daughters of the Americas.

(forward checks to National Office or follow your state guidelines)

CDA helping to build
hope, build lives,
one family at a time

National Charities

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. North American College | 4. Apostleship of the Sea |
| 2. Morality In Media | 5. Covenant House |
| 3. Catholic Relief Services | 6. Mother Teresa |
| | 7. Tutwiler Clinic |

All checks, payable to Catholic Daughters of the Americas and for specific charity, may be forwarded to the National Office.

Project Handclasp

Combined efforts between the Catholic Daughters and Volunteer sailors and marines allow for the overseas distribution of materials such as friendship bags, school and sewing supplies, toys, clothing, new soap and monetary donations for new treadle sewing machines allowing families to become self-sufficient.

Project Handclasp- Paul Brown, Director
For Monetary Donations/Correspondence only Director Project Handclasp
c/o Commander Navy Region SW 937 North Harbor Drive - Room 104
San Diego, CA 92132-0058

For Packages only
Project Handclasp Warehouse
Bldg. 3155, Bay 17
401 West 8th Street
National City, CA 91950