

END-OF-YEAR PRAYER SERVICE

Olga Samaniego, Spiritual Enhancement Chairman

Supplies: Soft Music, a variety of spring flowers, a table-top shrine with maybe a statue of the Blessed Mother, an open Bible, a vase with greenery or baby's breath, candles, etc.

Regent presents each member with a flower, and selects members to read.

Regent: As I look at the faithful members of our court, I realize how blessed we are to have each other, and I am filled with joy. I thank God for bringing us all together and for making us a true sisterhood dedicated to serving Him.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for our officers past, present, and future. I am grateful for their willingness to offer their time, talent, and energy to ensure that the purpose of our court is fulfilled.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for all who have served as committee chairmen. I am grateful that they have taken the time to plan and to organize our projects and events. I am grateful for their continued faithfulness to service and for their patience.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for all who have worked as members of each committee. Without them, our projects would be impossible. I am grateful for their support and commitment to the work of our court.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for the members who come to each court meeting without fail. I am grateful for the gift of their presence and for the witness of faithfulness they quietly share with the membership.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for the members who bring joy and enthusiasm to our court. I am grateful that they bring words of encouragement and laughter. I am grateful that they lift us up with their love.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Member: I thank God for the members who are not able to attend meetings but who are the prayer warriors who keep our court and our projects in their prayers. I am grateful for their faithful intercession.

(She places her flower in the vase.)

Regent asks each remaining member to place her flower in the vase and invites her to say what she is grateful for if she chooses.

All: Father, thank you for giving us the gift of time to work together this year. Bless us and remain with each of us as we part for the summer. Grant us each a time of peace and healing, and help us to seek you and to hear your voice. Bring us together in the fall with renewed energy and joy. Give us a renewed sense of commitment as we seek to serve you by serving your people. Bless and keep us all in the palm of your hand until we come together again. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
