

Membership Contest 2010-2012 Rules

State, Local and New Courts

Can you receive more members between April 1, 2010 and March 31, 2012 than any other court? If so, help your court win in the Local court contest. In addition there are prizes for the most new courts and for the new court with the most members on charter. All prizes will be by check: 1st-$100.00, 2nd $50.00, and 3rd-$25.00.

Local Courts will be divided into the following five divisions based on the number of members as of April 1, 2010:

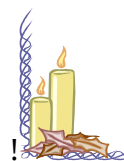

Division I	Up to 30 members	Division II	31 to 50 members
Division III	51 to 75 members	Division IV	76 to 120 members
Division V		121 or more members

There will be three prizes in each local court division. Prizes will be based on number of members received; in the case of a tie, winner will be determined by percent of increase of members among the courts that are tied.

State Courts will be eligible for one of three prizes. Prizes will be based on the most new courts instituted by a State during the two year period as described above. For a new court to be counted, the charter information, all completed applications and the list of officers must be in the National Office by March 31, 2012.

New Courts with the most Charter members: Prizes based on the number of members on the charter. The charter information, all applications and list of officers must be in the National Office by March 31, 2012.

Begin now to increase Catholic Daughter membership in your courts and help CDA continue to shine our lights in the service of Jesus. Remember that 'with God all things are possible'.
