

What is God Doing in Your Lives?

A message from Dr. Carol Dorr Clement, Author,
Catholic Daughters of the Americas: A Century in Review

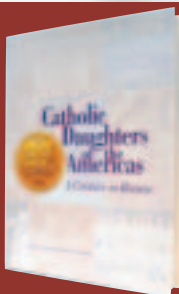

As a member of the Catholic Daughters you, yes you, bring Christ's love to the Americas when, in Christ's name, you do fundraising, go on retreats, and help God's people. In your Act of Consecration you pledge to be Christ's hands today, building God's kingdom on earth, often in hidden ways.

Catholic Daughters, are you reading what God is doing in your lives? St. Augustine himself taught that God's plan of salvation began with creation and continues to this very second. You are part of the "Acts of the Apostles" written in our times.

Being a CDA member has given joy, friendship, fun, and meaning to your life. The Catholic Daughters of the Americas: A Century in Review connects your story with all Catholic Daughters yesterday and today. Pray about your CDA history to recognize God's Spirit at work in you, your court, and country.

Share the book with your children and grandchildren. With special friends and relatives. With people in your town and parish. With your pastors and bishops. Let them know why CDA has meant so much to you. It is time for people of the Americas to read your very good news.

A Century in Review is your story—and we want you to learn and share the good news of our history.
